Top maintained Hotel Rural in the south of Majorca

In a prime location, close to the natural beach of Es Trenc and popular villages in the south and southeast of Majorca, this hotel Rural is for sale. With 40 beds and an upscale restaurant, this rural hotel offers all the luxury you need to make an excellent and lucrative investment.

The various room types offer all the comforts for carefree holidays and several pools invite you to pass the time under the Spanish sun.

On the approx. 90,000 m² large area are Padel and tennis courts as well as wellness areas with pool landscapes and a pool bar.

The hotel consists of several buildings and a rustic tower that could be brought back to life. Regular refurbishments and modernization underline the upscale category and the impressive attention to detail.

Also for events such as Weddings, the property enjoys a very good reputation and is gladly booked.

Further extensions have already been thought through and are ready for implementation.

A takeover of the company is possible at any time before or after the season.
